the Council of Twelve, will speak to members of the BYU Stake. He was sustained to his position in October, 1963.

A former bishop and member of a stake presidency, he was Canadian Mission President from 1959-1962.

King Sister 'Command Performance' to Mark 30th Showbusiness Year

The appearance of the King Sisters in the "Command Performance" Friday will mark their first in show business.

The benefit show for the new year will begin at 8 p.m. in Smith Fieldhouse.

THE KING Sisters, daughters of William King Driggs, former of Pleasant Grove, began their regional career as a trio while still in high school.

With their older brother Karl as an accompanist, they performed three times weekly over radio.

Since their radio appearances they were asked to perform in San Francisco for a two-week engagement at the Golden Gate Theatre. Following this performance they toured the United States appearing in major theaters and ballrooms.

THIS ASSOCIATION lasted for five years. Following the marriage of Maxine, Donna and Yvonne began singing, expanding the trio to a quartet. Donna also married and Marilyn joined the group as it will appear Friday.

TICKETS for the concert are available at the BYU Fieldhouse Ticket Office, from members of the Cougar Club and may also be purchased at the door.

Green seat tickets are $2.50, general admission $1.50 and student tickets 50¢.

Students' bodies dancing following the concert will be held in the East Gym of the Fieldhouse, with the Y's Men Band, and a record-hop will be held in the Smith Family Living Center.

Admission to the dance is 50 cents per person.

Bus To Transport For Conference

Buses to transport members of the BYU 2nd Stake to the conference sessions Saturday night and Sunday are available.

Saturday evening a bus will leave 900 North and University Ave. at 7:10 p.m. and in three minute intervals will stop at Cannon Center, Wyview Village, Wymount Terrace, and Carson's Market.

Sunday morning there will be two buses, one starting at 9:10 a.m. and one at 9:40 a.m. They will stop at the same spots as the Saturday evening bus and also in the same three minute intervals.

In Second Appearance . . .

by Evelyn Gould Music Critic

The Utah Symphony Orchestra under the baton of Maurice Abravanel presented the Pastoral Symphony of Beethoven at Thursday's forum. This was the orchestra's second appearance at the Brigham Young University this year.

On both occasions, the orchestra was facing the playing floor so that the large audience in the fieldhouse could have some sort of a view.

THE SORRY PART about this is that no one has a good view or a true listening vantage point except maybe those in the loge directly facing the orchestra.

Ralph Laycock, conductor of the BYU Symphony Orchestra and Concert Band induced the group. He mentioned applause, but it proved unnecessary since Mr. Abravanel had included oral program notes intended for each break in the symphony.

THE PASTORAL SYMPHONY which was the sixth of Beethoven's symphonies, surprised many in the audience by being as quiet and relaxing as it was, rather than more dynamic or exuberant.

The amount of soft forestry which can be created from a basketball floor is, of course, in question. The intonation of the woods was very good—much improved over the last performance.

Yet, the level of performance and the great receptivity of the audience created an exchange, and a real communication between artists and audience.

Ministers Leave South to Face To Racial Conflict

DETROIT, (UPI)—The Rev. R. Edwin King, chaplain of students at Tougaloo Christian College, Jackson, Miss., said Thursday more than 50 Methodist ministers have been forced to leave Mississippi in the last seven years because of racial conflict.

Rev. King, here to attend a meeting of the Methodist Bishops of the United States, also said 17-19 ministers have been forced to give up their pastorates since January. He said 28 ministers signed a statement in January protesting, in essence, that their churches were not open to all people.

The 17-19 ministers were among those who signed the petition, he said.

The Rev. Dr. James Laird, who heard Rev. King's speech, said most of those ministers were able to relocate in Southern California and Arizona.

Rev. King was enroute to Jackson and was unavailable for comment.

Rev. Laird said that Rev. King made two speeches here, one to a group of interested Detroit Methodist ministers Thursday and another night to a group of ministers and college students who had organized a group called "Methodists for Church Re- newal."

Dr. Laird said that many of the ministers who left Mississippi were not forced outright to quit, but "the pressure became very great on them." He described the Rev. King as "one of the leading liberals of the Methodist church in Mississippi."

The Rev. King's remarks were made at the Central Michigan Methodist church across the street from the hotel where the Methodist bishops were closing their sessions.

The bishops Wednesday called the segregation of any of their churches both an "absurdity" and a "sin."

The bishops, more than 60 in number, said "we decry, on legal as well as Christian grounds, the denial to any person of any color or race the right of membership or the right to worship in a Methodist church."

Bishop W. Angle Smith, Oklahoma City, chairman of the General Board of Evangelism of the council, Thursday added his regrets to any racial discrimination in the Methodist church.

500 Names Suggested For Center

"Though 500" names have been submitted for the memorial rooms in the Y Center, according to Executive Assistant Vince Breglio.

HE DESCRIBED the names as "some really fine, some sort of Mickey Mouse." The rodent type names will be dropped in two separate screenings and the remaining choices will be sent to the Board of Trustees in Salt Lake City for final selection.

Mr. Breglio called the four-day suggestion period "very successful" and gave high praise to his committee members who are Connie Tave, Irene Canning and Pam Harris, sophomores; Lynn Bennett, Susan Clark and Sharon Edwards, juniors; Kim Nelson, junior; and Dough Hindmarsh, senior.

THE COMMITTEE is a sub-committee of Student University Relations. More of their work is an introductory pamphlet on the Y Center that will be distributed to students when the building is opened in the spring.

This brochure will include maps, instructions on scheduling, lists of facilities and floor plans, according to Mr. Breglio.

Dragged Through Grime

After a reeking season of tragic losses our football team has now been kicked in the teeth by its own team members. Twelve players have broken training rules and have been suspended from play.

EVERY STUDENT AT BYU IS EXPECTED to uphold the standards of the Church and school. We sign our names during registration that we are willing to do so. When a person becomes a member of a competition team at BYU—he it debate or chess—he becomes doubly responsible because the world looks not only at the team's training rules but also at the school's standards. The football team is no exception.

What BYU's team needed more than anything else was the spunk from within to get out and fight; to do their best and then let the results fall where they may. This is what all of us expected. Five of our top players and seven team members have let their team and the entire school down. This, of course, does not exclude Ron Stewart who earlier abandoned our losing team in hopes of gaining a brighter future at Utah State. But then, rats are reputed to desert sinking ships.

Even though any chances we might have had to win another ball game this season have been lost, suspension from the team was exactly what the gentlemen deserved. Any student at the University who fails to uphold the required standards is placed on probation. Certainly the team members who have dragged our name through the grime deserved at least suspension.

The decision to remove the players must have been a difficult task. Mr. the coach since BYU finds itself eating the loser's dust in the Western Athletic Conference. The Daily Universe not only supports the stand taken by Hal Mitchell, but also we congratulate him for it.

One of these four coeds will be crowned IK Duchess during the intermission of the King Sister performance. The girls have been judged on beauty, poise, personality and talent. Finalists are Elin Cernkovic, Paula Patterson, Jane Cully and Sheri Jamison.

'Name On File' Reply

Dear Mr. "Name on File,"

On come now, things are not as bad as all that. I don't know where you sat, or what your roommates and your girl friend did to you prior to the Fieldhouse Frolics, but cheer up fellow. There are always other girls to take her place, and I'm sure housing will help you out with your present problem.

As for the taste and decorum that you fear is gone, be not dismayed for it is still here. The point of view we each express is flavored by our own daily experiences. So, Mr. "Name on File," may we suggest that you flavor your own daily experiences with a little less criticism, and with more understanding and wisdom.

THE BELL TELEPHONE COMPANIES
SALUTE: CHUCK SCHNORENBERG

Chuck Schnorenberg (B.S., 1957) is plant manager for Pacific Northwest Bell at the communications center in Roseburg, Oregon. He is responsible for the economical and efficient operation of all communications in the area.

This is quite an assignment for a man less than 3 years with the company. But Chuck's career has been based on increased knowledge of the company and its operations, which has been followed logically with the increased responsibility and authority he has proven he can handle.

As a supplies foreman and in subsequent positions in the accounting, engineering and plant departments, he has never reached the limit of his managerial capacities. No doubt he has a long way to go and grow with the company.

Chuck Schnorenberg, like many young engineers, is impatient to make things happen for his company and himself. There are few places where such restlessness is more welcomed or rewarded than in the fast-growing telephone business.

For Governor ... BYU Scientist Picks Toronto As Candidate

Dr. Mark Cannon of the political science department introduced Lamont Toronto, Utah Secretary of State, to the members of the Young Americans for Freedom and said, "Mr. Toronto will probably be the Republican candidate for the Utah State Governor morship in '64." Mr. Toronto did not deny the implication.

DR. CANNON said that Mr. Toronto "is the first major office holder in the state of Utah to be elected to three straight terms." He has been Utah Secretary of State for the past 12 years.

Mr. Toronto said, "I have many friends all over the state," and according to Dr. Cannon he is one of the states more popular officials.

MR. TORONTO demonstrated his interesting political ideas through an analogy that he made to how much one billion dollars is. He said, "If a potter at the time of Christ spent one thousand dollars a day and his sons had done the same his descendants would be spending the money until the year 2078."

In the question and answer period at the end of his speech he said, "Governor George Romney would have the best effect on the election in Utah as a leader of the national Republican party."

ing Says U.N. id Against War

David King, Ex-Congressman in Utah, spoke Thursday night the History club about "Our Situation Under the United Nations." He asked, "Is the United Nations building for the future is it betraying the past?"

Further, "Many Americans are emotional about the United Nations." He used as an example recent picketing in Dallas, Texas.

The founding fathers probably did not envision today's problems so we will have to face and solve them.

Thus the purpose of a world court since, "the exchange of us in the United Nations helps destroy the possibility of war. We can't discuss the problems which we have with the Communists, we will be forced into a situation where peace is impossible."

World law must be strengthened in order to assure peace for anyone, but the principle of individual nations must remain, concluded.

International Students Ask 'Silver Questions'

by Kathy Cheney
Staff

The BYU International Students Relations committee has now introduced the "Silver Questions" to the campus. They are: "What do you know about international students?", and "Would you like to know more?"

Brigham Young University is truly an international institution for represented here are fifty different nations, each having certain cultures of its own. This is a gold-mine for students interested in world affairs, international relations, art and culture, clothing and textiles, the humanities, psychology, philosophy, or any other field having to do with people, either directly or indirectly.

Within the coming months many activities are planned to provide for the cultural meeting and sharing among the members of all these nations. The members of the AMS and AWS committees on International Student Relations hope to make these activities successful.

What is a BYU friend? A friend is an American companion to a foreign student; someone who is interested in seeing that the visitor to our country feels welcome.

A friend will join his companion at the international students activities, forum assemblies, basketball games, and other such activities. An excellent opportunity for becoming better acquainted is the practice of double-dating with an international couple.

How much time will it take? A friend can spend as much time as he wishes with his companion. It is advised that they get together at least once a week.

There will be a meeting for all male students who are interested in being a BYU friend on Wednesday, at 7 p.m. in T2 of the Jesse Knight Building. The chairman in charge of this activity is Allan Edson.

Frosh Football Team Ends Season; Finale Pits Kits Against Junior Utes

by Ken Mitchell
Universe Sports

Friday at 2 p.m., in Cougar Stadium, the freshman football team will complete their four game schedule and with mixed emotions. Just four weeks ago the Kittens opened against today's opponent, Utah, and lost 12-7.

SINCE THAT time Coach Chris Apostol has regrouped the greens and lost two opponents, Utah State and the Air Force Academy, have felt the impact of the time of 79 points in the two games.

The Kittens have the momentum of a large boulder rolling down a steep grade; the Paposes are undefeated. This game has all the aspects of being a football fan's delight.

IN THREE games to date the BSU frosh have scored more than twice the number of points than the Ute frosh have scored. The Kittens have averaged just under 20 points per game while the young Utes have a 15-point average.

Carter . . . Frosh leader

The Y frosh have allowed the opponents an average of a touchdown per game. The U frosh have given up just two touchdowns in three games.

A MAJORITY of the players on the Kittens roster have been responsible for the team's success to date. However, some individuals have performed above average as the point production indicates.

Virgil Carter, the Y frosh quarterback, has gone all the way as the field general in the three games. So far he has thrown eight touchdown passes.

LAST FRIDAY at the Air Force Academy he got the spirit of the surroundings and went airborne for 270 yards and four touchdowns via the air-ways.

Kent Oborn will be in the left halfback position again today. Oborn has accounted for 36 of the total Kittens points. Apparently Kent enjoys working for his points.

Three of his six touchdowns have been scored on sprints of 50, 75, and 74 yards.

THE LEADING ground gainer for the Kittens is Bill Garrison from Phoenix Ariz. Garrison was just another freshman trying to make good at the beginning of the season. He has made good enough to be a starter in every game at right-half.

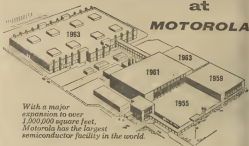

Much of the success of the backfield has to be credited to some alert and aggressive lineman. Earl Hedani, Max Huber, Mel Olson, Grant Wilson, Mike DeMello and DeWay Lavatui have made running room time and again for the Kittens backs.

ON DEFENSE these same linemen have led in the statistics throughout the season. Also playing strong on defense have been Terry Newsom, Hank Skidmore and Bob Collins.

Bob Allphin, Gordon Jennings, and Ivan Turpin have manned the end positions throughout the season. End Tony Cox along with Jennings and Turpin have accounted for four Kittens touchdowns on passes from Carter.

Look for Doug Schow, Tony Janson and Curg Belcher to be regular performers in the defensive secondary against the Utes.

More Gridders Cut...

Stewart, Specht, John Kawan and all of a sudden 12 more removed and the Brigham Young University grid picture gets even more blurred.

Wednesday evening it was announced by officials that 12 players had been cut from the grid squad including, Lou Andrus, Randy Autentico, Phil Brady, Dennis Brewster, Dennis Conrad, Paul Knoblauch, Ofati Malepele, Bill Mitton, Lou Santigo, Glen Shea, Jay Vesterfelt and John Wilson.

Thus cuts a large hole in the team as five were on the starting lineup and the rest second and third string players.

Middle Of Line Hurling

The middle of the line was especially hurt where Shea and Brewster were starters at center and tackle and Conrad and Mitton were backup men at right guard. Santigo, Autentico and Brady were all starters in the backfield.

Officials stated the reason for the cut was: "The players were dropped from the squad for training infractions."

So now it's up to the rest of the squad to come up with enough spark to beat the Tigers of the University of Pacific this weekend. The Tigers were beaten by Colorado State earlier this year but are still favored by as much as 15 to take their first win of the season at the expense of the Cats.

Ballard To Be Quarterback

Jimmy Ballard, who showed at least a little spark in Washington D.C., will be handed the unenviable task of putting some drive into the offense. The 170-pound sophomore quarterback has shown lots of improvement in recent weeks and will probably be the key to any offensive success.

The defense has some strong performers but still seems as the possible key to the ball game. If the defensive unit can hold their California opponents on the ground such as they have shown in recent outings perhaps the Mountain Cats can rack up their second victory of this campaign.

Coach Mitchell however, is saddled with the problem of filling the vacant spots with adequate enough performers to provide a win.

Lots Of Eyes On Cats

Anyway there will be a lot of eyes focused on the Cougars this weekend, despite their poor season record. This should be the weakest squad the Cats have scheduled this year and thus it becomes akin to a "must" game for the Mitchellmen.

Perhaps I should rename this column The View from the City Morgue.

Oregon State To Renew Grid Rivalry With USC

LOS ANGELES, (UPI)—Coach Elmer Frothing's Oregon State team of "Spikers" meets the University of Southern California tonight for the first time in three years in the renewal of an old football rivalry.

THE LAST time the Beavers d Trojans clashed was in the closing game of the 1950 season d John McKay's debut as head coach for Southern California fell at under a 140 defeat.

Since that meeting, both teams added success peaks. The Trojans last year emerged as the national champions while Oregon ate with the sensational Terry Ker guiding them climaxed the coastal season with a 60 victory over Villanova in the Liber Bowl.

THIS YEAR, going into to

Coach Tuckett Featured On Prognostication List

Due to a lack of space in today's paper the weekly Pigskin Prognostics will not be run in diagram form but are presented here instead.

THIS WEEK'S board of prognosticators includes Bud Tolman, Universe Sports Editor; Stan Hodge, Asst. Sports Editor; Writers Kim Brewster, Doug Christensen, and Jack Batchler, and guests Dick Sonder and Coach Glen Tuckett.

The pickers were unanimous in choosing Oklahoma over Missouri, Air Force over New Mexico, Pittsburgh over Army, and Navy over Duke. Stan Hodge was alone in picking the underdog in the following games as the majority of the prognosticators chose Florida State over North Carolina State, Illinois over Wisconsin, Ohio State over Northwestern and Texas over Texas Christian. Jack Batchler was the lone voter to pick Wyoming over Arizona State and Notre Dame to down Michigan State.

IN THE remainder of the picks the prognosticators were well split. Hodge, Brewster, Christensen and Batchler chose Georgia Tech to beat Alabama, while Sonder, Tolman and Tuckett favored the Crimson Tide.

Only Tolman, Batchler and Tuckett rode with BYU with everyone else picking Pacific to win. In another game involving a conference team, Holman, Hodge, Christensen and Sonder pick Utah over California with Brewster, Batchler, and Tuckett dissenting.

IN ANOTHER Big Ten battle,

Minnesota is favored over Purdue by Hodge, Christensen, Sonder, and Tuckett, while Tolman, Brewster, and Batchler chose to go with Purdue.

Only two "experts" pick SMU to beat Arkansas: Tolman and Christensen. All the rest feel the Razorbacks will come out on top.

night's clash at the Coliseum. The Beavers and Trojans own identical 53 records. It is the next to the last game for both teams who clash with traditional rivals the following week and the success of the season hinges for both on their final two games.

Oregon State has been an independent team since the old Pacific Coast Conference folded and the Beavers would welcome rejoining their former league rivals in the Athletic Association of Western Universities if invited. The Beavers, as a result, are anxious to make a good showing tonight.
